

REDS ARE IN CIA, POLE CHARGES

Defector From Russ Police
Makes Claim, Paper Says

New York, March 2 (AP) — The New York Journal-American reported today that a defector from the Soviet Secret Police has informed United States officials that Moscow has placed active "cells" in the Central Intelligence Agency and the State Department.

The newspaper said the defector is Michal Goleniewski, 41, a Polish-born agent. It said he was a high-ranking operative in Russia's KGB until his defection in April, 1963, and is sure that the "cells" still are operating in the two high Government agencies in Washington and overseas.

The Journal-American account, written by Guy Richards, said of the defector:

"He has named names. He has provided Washington with details of what looms as a greater scandal than the famous Alger Hiss case."

The story listed these disclosures said to have been made by Goleniewski:

1. "Approximately $1,200,000 of CIA funds in Vienna recently was passed secretly along to the Communist—one third to KGB (the Soviet Secret Police), one third to the Italian Communist party and one third to the American Communist party."

2. "Three American scientists with access to defense secrets are working for the KGB. They have ties to others in the same category whose identities are unknown to him, but he has clues to a number of them."

3. "KGB has been able to infiltrate all American embassies in important cities abroad and every United States agency except the FBI."

4. "Little, if anything has been done to run down or clean out the KGB men on American payrolls although he fed the facts and exposures on them to the CIA, starting in 1960."

5. "Instead of having his information used for the clean-out job he came here for, he charges, he has been thwarted by amateurs and 'Stalinists' in the CIA and even kept from communicating his plight to responsible higher officials here."
